FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

James Langston's Did You First Pray About It? Calls Readers Back to Prayer Before Every Decision

A timely and spiritually compelling book reminding believers to seek God first in a world driven by impulse, pressure, and uncertainty.

VIRGINIA BEACH, VA — In an age where decisions are often made emotionally, impulsively, or under pressure, author, pastor, missionary, and retired U.S. Navy veteran James Langston is asking readers one life-changing question: "Did you first pray about it?"

His latest book, Did You First Pray About It?, now available on Amazon in paperback, hardcover, and Kindle eBook formats, is a heartfelt and deeply practical call for believers to return to prayer, wisdom, and dependence upon God before making life's most important decisions.

Available here:

With clarity, compassion, and biblical conviction, Langston challenges readers to slow down in a fast-moving world and rediscover the importance of seeking God's direction before speaking, reacting, committing, walking away, or moving forward.

Drawing from Scripture, real-life struggles, spiritual insights, and decades of ministry experience, Did You First Pray About It? addresses the growing tendency of modern culture to act first and pray later. The book encourages readers to trust God fully in moments of uncertainty, confusion, heartbreak, pressure, and crossroads.

“This book is not about religion for religion’s sake,” Langston explains. “It is about learning to hear the voice of God in a world full of competing voices.”

Readers have described the book as timely, convicting, encouraging, practical, spiritually refreshing, and desperately needed for this generation.

James Langston, Senior Pastor of Pilgrim Outreach Ministries International, has spent decades ministering in the United States, Italy, and the Philippines. His ministry focuses on evangelism, missions, discipleship, encouragement, and helping people discover authentic biblical truth in everyday life.

At its core, Did You First Pray About It? is more than a book—it is an invitation to trust God again.
